If You Will It, It Is No Dream

May 14, 1948. That day of Israel’s birth encapsulates so much of Israel itself. It marked the realization of a two-thousand year old dream to reestablish our home in the land of Israel. It prompted an existential threat from the new state’s Arab residents and neighbors. It required delicate and strong diplomacy to placate allies. And the declaration itself needed to take place on Friday afternoon, hours before the mandate was officially terminated, because it could not take place on Shabbat.

As we celebrate the 70th anniversary of the birth of the State of Israel, we see that how Israel balances all these challenges is the story of Israel itself. For seventy years, Israel has repelled the aggression of her neighbors to secure her defense. For seventy years Israel has struggled to balance its own sense of self with the opinions and counsel of the U.S., and the family of nations. For seventy years Israel has wrestled with how to balance the needs of both its Jewish and Arab citizens, as well as the Palestinians who live within and alongside its borders. And for seventy years, Israel has been embroiled in a grand debate about what role Jewish religious tradition will play in the life of the Jewish state.

Israel’s Declaration of Independence, admired throughout the world. It has transformed its socialist economy into a thriving capitalist center of innovation and discovery. It boasts some of the finest universities in the world. It has revolutionized how we develop agriculture, how we practice medicine, how we conserve and recycle water, and how we communicate. From a few sand dunes, Tel Aviv has become a metropolis pulsing with culture and life. From the ancient stones of Jerusalem has grown a vibrant and multi-cultural city.

Think of what Israel has accomplished in just seventy years. It has built a citizen’s army that is the most potent force in the Middle East and an intelligence service admired throughout the world. It has transformed its socialist economy into a thriving capitalist center of innovation and discovery. It boasts some of the finest universities in the world. It has revolutionized how we develop agriculture, how we practice medicine, how we conserve and recycle water, and how we communicate. From a few sand dunes, Tel Aviv has become a metropolis pulsing with culture and life. From the ancient stones of Jerusalem has grown a vibrant and multi-cultural city.

And still Israel wrestles with the challenges it faced on its very first Shabbat. Israel struggles with how to integrate its Arab citizens into a state that is the product of our dreams, not theirs. Israel still grapples with how to manage its relationships with the United States, its neighbors, and the nations of the world. We still have been unable to forge a peace with the Palestinians with whom we share this land. And while Israel endeavors to safeguard the rights of those who practice the world’s other great religions, it has yet to protect the diverse array of how Judaism itself is practiced.

In 1902, Herzl published Altneuland – Old New Land – a utopian vision of his dream for a Jewish state. In that book he wrote: “If you will it, it is no dream.” We live in an age where dreams have come true. And we who live in this miraculous age bear a responsibility to ensure that the dreams that remain also come true – for an Israel prosperous and free, an Israel at peace with its neighbors, and at peace with itself.
A MESSAGE FROM THE TEMPLE PRESIDENT

Why do I support Israel?

BY MARK SUNSHINE
TEMPLE BETH EL PRESIDENT
msunshine@masunshine.com

It’s a simple question: why do I support Israel?
Sometimes the most basic question is the hardest to answer, and this question raises conflicting emotions and thoughts.
I don’t agree with everything Israel does in foreign policy. I am hurt by the Israeli ultra-orthodox failure to recognize the authenticity of secular and Reform Jews. I believe that women should be fully integrated into religious life, especially when visiting the Kotel (Western Wall.) And, I don’t think that American security is helped by the Israeli settlement policy.

I support Israel because its existence ensures that my children and grandchildren will never fear for their lives merely because they are Jewish.

A quick internet search confirmed that while there is a lot written about why I shouldn’t support Israel, there is very little about why I should support Israel.

Even so, I know I will always support Israel.
I support Israel because its existence ensures that my children and grandchildren will never fear for their lives merely because they are Jewish.

Israel wouldn’t exist if it weren’t for the systematic killing of European Jews during the last century.
Israel was a safe haven for Jewish refugees who had nowhere else to go.

On May 31st Temple Beth El will host Ehud
Barak, former Prime Minister and former Defense Minister. Mr. Barak wouldn’t exist if there wasn’t an Israel.

At least two sets of Prime Minister Barak’s grandparents were denied their lives when they were murdered in pogroms and in death camps.
Prime Minister Barak fought for, and then led a nation, that categorically rejects the notion that it’s okay to murder Jews. He fought to protect his family and his country. But he also fought to protect me and my family just in case sometime in the future we need to flee to the relative safety of a Jewish homeland.

So, why do I support Israel?
The answer is simple; Israel is the unambiguous statement that my family and I have a right to exist; that my life and my children’s lives are as valuable and important as anyone else’s; and never again will Jewish life be casually taken without a fight.

Construction Update

By Steve Kaufman
Executive Director
skaufman@tbeboca.org

We are now well under way with construction at both the Schaefer Family Campus and the Beck Family Campus.

Phase 2 of the Schaefer Family Campus renovation is in full swing. After we complete the demolition of the old lobby, chapel and clergy office areas, we can begin construction of the new grand lobby and covered drop off, the new chapel, the new adult learning room, restroom renovations, a new Sisterhood gift shop, and a portion of the new administrative offices. Phase 2 also includes a complete redecoration of the Atrium and Social Hall in the summer of 2018. We anticipate that Phase 2 of the Project will be complete in early 2019.

At the Beck Family Campus we have started an ambitious expansion plan. This project includes the following elements:

- Construction of four new buildings located on the east side of the campus.
- Two of the buildings will be classroom buildings comprised of three new classrooms per building (six rooms total).
- One of the buildings will be comprised of a much-needed storage room and a lounge for teachers and teens.
- The fourth building, the largest of the new buildings at approximately 6,000 SF will be a new multi-function space suitable for assemblies, indoor play, special holiday activities, family worship services (such as Tot Shabbat), parties, large group meetings, adult education and more. This new multi-purpose space will be located on the north-east section of the campus, immediately east of the lobby. This building also includes a catering kitchen to support party rentals.
- The project also includes modifications and expansions of the administrative office areas of the campus. We are also planning to paint the exterior of all existing buildings, and resurface and re-stripe the parking lot.

As both of these projects progress, we are doing our best to minimize the noise, dust and inconvenience to our members and guests. We appreciate your patience and cooperation during this challenging time. Continuing to remain fully operational with this level of construction activity at both sites is challenging, so please pardon our mess.

Food Donations

Donate non-perishable groceries for the Jacobson Family Food Pantry, and help families struggling to get by. Donations bins are located at both Schaefer and Beck Family Campuses.

If you, a loved one, or a friend are hospitalized, please let us know.

As many of you know, our clergy are dedicated to visiting anyone from the Temple family if they are in the hospital. Recently, the local hospitals have said that they will no longer be informing us when someone from the Temple has been hospitalized. Please call the Temple at 561-391-8900 and a member of the clergy team will come visit!

Temple Beth El in Action

When Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel returned from marching for civil rights in Selma, Alabama in March of 1965 he was asked by someone, ‘Did you find much time to pray, when you were in Selma?’ Rabbi Heschel responded, ‘I prayed with my feet.’ And he made the point that his marching, his protesting, his speaking out for Civil Rights was the way he was praying.

Our temple community did a lot of praying with our feet these past few months. We spoke out for an end to gun violence in Tallahassee, Boca Raton, Parkland and Washington, D.C. We built a home for an underprivileged family with Habitat for Humanity. We gleaned extra crops in the field so that the poor could have fresh vegetables. And we prepared and served Easter Dinner at the Wayne Barton Center to those who might otherwise not have a celebration.

MAY
The Jewish Bookshelf with Rabbi Greg Weisman
Tuesdays, May 1, 8, 15, 22 and 29, 2018
12:00pm-1:00pm
They call us the People of the Book, but really we’re the People of the Books. Torah, Talmud, Mishnah, Midrash, all of these books have guided our people for thousands of years. Join Rabbi Greg Weisman as he leads us on a journey through the Jewish textual tradition, from biblical times to today’s modern questions.

JUNE
The Book of Ruth:
In her time and in the time of #metoo
with Rabbi Laurence Kotok and Rabbi Jessica Spitalnic Brockman
Tuesdays, June 5, 12, 19, 26, 2018
12:00pm-1:00pm
The book of Ruth is a book of love – between people, for land and for G-d. “Entreat me not to leave you, or to return from following after you. For wherever you go, I will go. Wherever you lodge, I will lodge. Your people shall be my people, and your God my God. Where you die, I will die; and there will I be buried.” We will examine these famous words, but also the puzzling and troubling elements about the story.

RETURN OF THE TRAVELING TORAH
The celebration of the gift of Torah at Sinai!

SATURDAY, MAY 19, 2018
Have Torah, will travel. Choose House #1 or House #2 and feel the power of our ancient scripture as the Torah travels to you this Shavuot.

Please sign up to bring either wine or cheesecake and join our rabbi as we gather around the Torah to read and understand the commandments. Then enjoy traditional cheesecake, wine and an in-depth study session on why Jews were chosen to carry the Torah.

TORAH, WINE AND CHEESECAKE!

The Birth of the Jewish State

Herzl’s “The Jewish State” 1896
Theodor Herzl, an Austro-Hungarian journalist who covered the Dreyfus trial as a correspondent, publishes “Der Judenstaat,” a German phrase meaning The Jewish State, in which he proposes the creation of a Jewish state as the solution to anti-Semitism.

1880-1903 First Aliyah
The First Aliyah brings an estimated 25,000-35,000 immigrants to Palestine, the majority of them fleeing anti-Jewish pogroms in Eastern Europe.

1882

Balfour Declaration
November 2, 1917
Britain issues the Balfour Declaration, endorsing the establishment of a national home in Palestine for the Jewish people.

Herzl and party on their way to visit Palestine.
I recently went on a Mission to Israel with the Jewish Federation of South Palm Beach County. It was my fifth trip to Israel and my third community mission; therefore, sightseeing was secondary to developing deeper relationships with others in our wonderful Jewish community. I asked my wife, Ilene, why Rabbi Dan would go on a Federation Mission when he takes Temple Beth El almost every year, and Ilene said that Rabbi Dan “gets” the concept of community and wanted to introduce our new temple president, Mark Sunshine, to the rest of the community.

I have known Rabbi Dan for over 20 years and have always considered him not only my Rabbi but also a friend. I have treated his family in my office (editor’s note: Peter Wohlgemuth is an orthodontist in Boca Raton), golfed with him and studied with Rabbi Dan but was able to see him in a different light while in Israel! Our Rabbi Dan is truly loved by the entire South Palm Beach County Jewish Community. He is respected as a peer by the Orthodox Rabbis and he was the spiritual leader to many on the trip; even those who are not temple members. He was always jumping in to participate and we all know he never passes up on an opportunity for a joke or laugh.

The pictures from the trip show the many personas of our Rabbi Dan: Whether leading a community service before Shabbat outside the Kotel, partaking in a little role playing or spontaneously creating a special memory for friends celebrating a 37th anniversary; Rabbi Dan was always there with a smile on his face. As the famous basketball coach, John Wooden said: “The most powerful leadership tool is your own personal example”.

I am such a proud congregant and friend and felt compelled to share these thoughts with you, my Temple community. We are truly blessed at Temple Beth El to be led by the very best!
Shuli Asher

Shuli grew up in Bet-Shemesh, about 30 minutes from Jerusalem. She speaks different Arabic languages, and has always had a special love for the I.D.F (Israel Defense Force), so she decided to build a career in the army. She went to high school on an army base, where she studied accounting and gained experience in many different fields. After graduation, Shuli served in the army and learned skills that gave her tools for life.

Shuli moved to America 18 years ago, is currently a teacher at the Beth El Early Learning Center, and a proud mother of three children.

“God bless America! God bless Israel!”

What is the thing you love most about Israel? What I love the most about Israel are the holy places, especially the wailing wall.

• Israel is the only democratic country in the Middle East!
• Has the most humanitarian army with the best morals and values.
• The warmth of the people and how at the time of need we are all united!
• Visiting the Shuk (market) and eating street food like falafel and shawarma with hummus.

• Breathtaking places from Galilee to Eilat, Tel-Aviv the city that never stops!
• Floating in the Dead Sea, the lowest point in the world.
• A small country with “big minds “
• Because Israel is the home of many start - ups.

What is something you wish would be different? I’m wishing for PEACE

As an Israeli American, what are your hopes for the next 70 years of Israel? I would like to see the Israeli citizens living with no fear from our neighbors. No more wars, and everybody living side by side in harmony.

What does Israel mean to you? Israel is where the Jewish heart lives and my heart with it. We the Jewish nation say “never again!” referring to the holocaust. Please, let us all remember how important it is for us all to have the Jewish state.
Shachar Erez

Shachar Erez, a software engineer, was the first grandchild born on his kibbutz (his mom was the first baby born there!) and is married to our Director of Youth and Education, Heather Erez. Shachar and Heather met when she was teaching on a kibbutz in 1998. Shachar moved to the California in 2003.

What is the thing you love most about Israel? Food, friends, family. What is something you wish would be different? More tolerance and less racism. As an Israeli American, what are your hopes for the next 70 years of Israel? That it will still exist as a democracy. What does Israel mean to you? Home

Yaniv Cohen

After finishing his service in the Israeli Army at 22, Yaniv came to Boca Raton, went to school full-time and started a business. He met Michelle Auslander Cohen in 2003 when she was singing at High Holy Day services.

What is the thing you love most about Israel? The music. What is something you wish would be different? That people would learn how to get along even if they disagree. Israelis are terrible at that. As an Israeli American, what are your hopes for the next 70 years of Israel? That Israel will continue to advance in the same rapid way it has for the past 70 years. What does Israel mean to you? Home of any Jewish person regardless of their affiliation...and great food!!

Ora Meles

Ora was born in New Jersey to an Israeli father and a New Yorker mother. It was her father’s dream to return home to Israel and in 1979 they made Aliyah. After completing her junior year in high school, she reluctantly moved back with her family to New Jersey, then returned to Israel after high school and joined the Israeli Army. At the end of her service Ora returned to the US to attend college. For the past 24 years, Ora has taught at Temple Beth El religious school as well as worked for the School District of Palm Beach County.

What is the thing you love most about Israel?
What I love most about Israel is my memories and experiences with my family. Almost every Saturday, all five of us would pile into the family station wagon and find ourselves headed to a new place to explore. Our parents’ goal was to educate us about every inch of Israel.

What is something you wish would be different?
I vividly remember the 1979 peace treaty between Israel and Egypt. That was a time of great hope and optimism. It sounds trite, but I wish for peace. I hope Israel can find its way to exist in a peaceful world that embraces diversity.

As an Israeli American, what are your hopes for the next 70 years of Israel?
I hope that the well established strong relationship between Israel and the United States continues to thrive. I hope that every one of my students has the opportunity to enjoy the beauty that Israel has to offer.

What does Israel mean to you?
While growing up in Israel and later serving in the army, I learned the value of family and friends, but most of all a healthy dose of chutzpah.
Israel, HaZamir and Lincoln Center!

On Sunday, March 18, 400 Jewish teens from all over the United States and Israel came together as one voice in a concert in Lincoln Center, as HaZamir: International Jewish Teen Choir. HaZamir serves as a youth movement, with 31 chapters throughout the U.S. and 7 in Israel. The teens learn the same music all year, and come together for a Shabbaton and concert in the most prestigious venues in the world, such as Carnegie Hall or the Metropolitan Opera.

HaZamir embraces Jewish teens from all backgrounds, from Reform to Orthodox, Conservative to unaffiliated. This year, Beth El members Jake Goldberg, Gabby Lusskin and Rachel Ramos performed with HaZamir Boca Raton chapter, directed by our Cantorial Soloist, Michelle Auslander Cohen, and generously underwritten by Margie and Maurice Plough.

Through music and friendship, HaZamir gives these teens a strong connection to Israel. This year, HaZamir had the honor of hosting Michael Bitton, the mayor of Yerucham, Israel. In his words, “It is the responsibility of both the US and Israel to ensure each other’s survival. The challenges are great and what kept the previous generation connected is not necessarily the same as what will keep future generations connected. It takes deeply meaningful connections and similar interests and this is what HaZamir is about; it is innovation and relevance for the future generations of our people”.

For information about your teen auditioning for next year’s HaZamir group, please contact Michelle Auslander Cohen mcohen@tbeboca.org.

Lee and Izzy Rotter

Izzy, Lee, Laurie and Lavi Rotter moved from Jerusalem three years ago. Izzy is a property manager and Lee works for the Jewish Federation of South Palm Beach County. Their daughter Laurie is in third grade and Lavi is in Kindergarten. They both attend Del Prado Elementary School.

What is the thing you love most about Israel? The food.

What is something you wish would be different? More unity.

As an Israeli American, what are your hopes for the next 70 years of Israel? Peace and prosperity.

What does Israel mean to you? Family and home.

FREE and open to the public, geared towards parents in the latter half of pregnancy

Having a baby is the most wonderful thing that can happen to new parents. Yet, taking care of a newborn, baby’s feeding issues or finding other new parents for support can be stressful. The Breastfeeding Center of Boca Raton, in partnership with Temple Beth El, will present a pre-natal seminar, touching on issues of baby care, feeding, CPR, and post-natal support.

Please RSVP at tbeboca.org/adult-education

CULINARY TOUR OF ISRAEL

with Rabbi Levin
EVERY MEAL TELLS A STORY
October 27-November 7, 2018

Meet the chefs and enjoy the culinary delights of the best restaurants in Tel Aviv. Explore street food vendors, markets, wineries, cheesemakers, farms and ancient olive presses throughout the Israeli countryside. Learn about Israeli history, culture and spirituality through the richness of its many tastes and abundant treasures. See the Israel the way you’ve never seen it before.

For information and early booking details, contact Elinor Josephson, Director of Engagement and Programming at ejosephson@tbeboca.org or 561-391-8900.

ARE YOU A FOODIE?

“...But it’s the atmosphere that made me fall in love with eating Israeli-style. The best restaurants aren’t hushed culinary temples but festive rooms full of people having fun.”*

THE JEWS OF BRAZIL FROM THE 1500’S TO TODAY
with Dr. Sandra Lilienthal,
followed by Brazilian pastries and coffee

Sunday, June 3, 2018 • 1:00pm
Schaefer Family Campus
No RSVP/No fee

Unlike many of the other South American countries, the Brazilian Jewish community did not experience anti-Semitism. We will learn about the original Jewish communities of the northern part of the country to today’s communities in the south, looking at the different waves of Jewish immigration. What is happening today - are Jews still welcome? Do they feel safe? What does the future look like?

Dr. Sandra Lilienthal received her Master’s degree in Jewish Studies and her Doctorate in Jewish Education from Gratz College. She is part of the Florence Melton School of Adult Jewish Learning faculty, an adjunct professor at Gratz College and is a frequent speaker at Jewish education conferences, synagogues and other Jewish organizations. Sandra has great enthusiasm for teaching Judaism as a living religion, and infusing true passion for it among those who study with her. She is a 2015 winner of the Covenant Award for Excellence.

WOMEN OF WIT

Spend the afternoon laughing at this show exploring the lives of playwright Wendy Wasserstein and writers Nora Ephron and Erma Bombeck. Dessert and conversation with the performers will follow. RSVP at tbeboca.org/senior-circle or to Aileen Spilka at aspilka@tbeboca.org or 561-391-8900.
Selecting a Summer Camp

BY CINDY KORSHIN
BETH EL EARLY LEARNING CENTER DIRECTOR
ckorshin@tbeboca.org

SELECTING THE RIGHT SUMMER CAMP FOR YOUR CHILD IS NOT AN EASY DECISION. THERE ARE MANY VARIABLES THAT MIGHT INFLUENCE YOU INCLUDING WHERE YOUR CHILD’S FRIENDS MIGHT BE GOING, CONVENIENCE AND REPUTATION.

WHAT ARE THE STAFFING RATIOS?
The Beth El Early Learning Center maintains the same teacher/student ratios year round.

HOW EXPERIENCED ARE THE COUNSELORS?
Experienced counselors, with years of education and training are better equipped to mitigate behavioral challenges. Adult supervision by experienced teachers such as those at the Beth El Early Learning Center are trained to handle challenging behaviors, utilizing problem solving techniques and mitigating small problems before they escalate.

HOW DOES THE CAMP HANDLE DISCIPLINE?
Is the policy in alignment with your personal values? At the Beth El Early Learning Center, we believe children should be able to learn through experimentation and exploration, which also means learning from mistakes. Children should always be treated with respect and ideally learn a more desirable way of behaving without a punitive approach.

HOW LARGE OR SMALL IS THE CAMP?
For some children, a large camp may be overwhelming. All of our activities involve walking from one area to another, but are easily navigated by young children. Some campuses are massive and children lose interest in participating in an activity by the time they reach their destination. Remember not all children tolerate the Florida hot sun very well and your child’s temperament will play a role in their willingness to be outdoors.

WHAT TYPES OF ACTIVITIES ARE PLANNED?
While some facilities and campuses look impressive, the actual activities being planned should be age appropriate. Remember, you are paying for the program, not the facility.

WHAT ABOUT THE TRANSITIONS FROM CAMP TO SCHOOL?
Many of our students make the transition from camp to school with minimal apprehension because they are so comfortable with our staff and the warmth they feel the minute they enter the building.

This year we are again offering the Bridge to Kindergarten, designed to reinforce and refine the skills learned during the Pre-K year. This is a great option for our Pre-K students. Students will participate in all themed activities including wild animal shows, dance parties, soccer, Kidokinetics, Hip-Hop, Olympic day, Water Day and much, much more!

Children must be 5 years old to participate and have completed Pre-K. If you are interested please contact Cindy Korshin at ckorshin@tbeboca.org or Ronni Graf at rgraf@tbeboca.org.

For sale: A comprehensive Jewish education package for children grades K-12 in a safe and secure environment with passionate and knowledgeable faculty. Includes developmentally appropriate Judaic and Hebrew classes, nosh, retreats, free or highly subsidized youth group events, two consecration ceremonies, a B’nai Mitzvah celebration, confirmation, and graduation.

As a busy mom of two, the less I have to navigate, the better. I want to sign up for something and know everything is included. I don’t like hidden costs or having to bring a credit card wherever I go.

When I speak to preschool parents about religious school, I’m not just talking kindergarten. I am talking about the entire synagogue community that includes a Jewish education package for their child that lasts until college. We are in it for the long haul.

Streamlining

We are streamlining our program so that families can make the best use of their time. For instance, instead of adding another night of Hebrew school for the B’nai Mitzvah Chanting Class, we integrated it into our Sunday morning program at the Beck Family Campus. We have refined our curriculum and eliminated repetition so that students could take a deeper dive into each subject.

Tuition Structure

Most noticeably for parents of religious school students, there is a new tuition structure. What was previously known as a Bat/Bar Mitzvah fee is now integrated into our tuition. Families will no longer receive an additional $1800 bill in the 6th or 7th grade. This year, to catch up and get everyone on the same rate moving forward, tuition will look higher than normal for 4th-7th grade. If a family has paid anything toward their Bat/Bar Mitzvah fee in the past, their account will be credited that amount in this year’s tuition.

Community and Belonging

We are working on multiple ways to increase fluidity between formal and informal education at temple; to create community and the feeling of belonging for our students so they want to come to religious school to have fun while learning. In the coming months we will be reaching out to parents and students for input on what aspects of Jewish life most speak to you and your child, and how we can best play a role that is meaningful and relevant.

I look forward to the continued partnership and encourage you to check out our FAQ page in the Religious School section of the website to learn more about the transitions we are making.

We are coming to the end of our year for Brotherhood and we are extremely proud of our accomplishments. We have set a record for fundraising with the amazing success of this year's Brotherhood Golf Tournament and our 2nd Annual Bike Ride in Memory of Steve Brown z”l. The money we raise funds numerous charities and Temple Beth El activities. Alan and I offer our sincerest gratitude to all members and non-members who have come out and participated in Brotherhood events and donated time, sweat, tears and money to the cause.

This is also the last song and dance for the current Brotherhood Board. For the last three years Alan and I, as well as Marc Jaro, Louie Datz, Seth Robert and Justin Jacobs have strived to build Brotherhood as an organization that represents in the most positive way the spirit of Temple Beth El. It has been an honor and a privilege to serve. This summer a new Brotherhood Board will be named, and we are still looking for new faces and fresh ideas to contribute to the future of Brotherhood. If any Brotherhood member is interested in taking a more active role in leadership we can assure them that it is time well spent with the best group of guys. We have found our time as Co-Presidents to be the best we have had at Temple Beth El, and we highly encourage anyone interested to share in this experience by offering your time and intelligence to the cause.

For those interested in learning more about brotherhood or participating in our events or leadership please contact us at info@tbeboca.org.

It is hard to believe that we have come to the end of another Sisterhood year, which was chock-full of programs, discussions and events of all kinds. There just isn’t enough time!

Lord & Taylor Night Out was a lively night of beauty and fashion tips, light bites and sips, lots of shopping, raffles, and all for a great cause.

On March 27th, 150+ women gathered at Temple Beth El for the annual Women’s Seder. A delicious dinner was followed by an interactive Seder, as we celebrated an inspirational evening for women. Spiritual seeker, Amy Grossblatt Pessah, and past Temple Beth El president, Patty Beck inspired everyone, speaking about the search for spirituality and equality. The Women’s Seder is a tradition that reminds us each year of the strength of women, what it means to be Jewish women, and how being a Jewish woman comes with such honor and responsibility.

Sisterhood also had a fun, Israeli-themed evening event for the first time, and everyone seemed to want the tradition to continue.

As we wind down another busy year, we are so grateful for our many wonderful Sisterhood members, potential new members and guests who have attended our programs, onegs, brunches, discussions and who have volunteered time and time again.

We hope to see you at Sisterhood’s upcoming events. Be on the lookout for summer

Your child’s grades and test scores do not adequately describe his or her unique qualities. Barbara will make your child stand out from the rest of the pool of applicants.

- Test prep services ACT, SAT, TOEFL, SSAT
- Step by step support through the entire college application process
- One-on-one meetings to keep your child productive, organized and on track

Applying to college is a complicated process, but it doesn’t have to be overwhelming. The secret is to plan ahead and start early.
