

Our Mission: To educate our children so that they grow to be literate and confident Jewish adults who find meaning in their identity and their tradition.

Big ideas that stretch over the entire school curriculum:

Chagim: Shabbat and Holidays - Shabbat and the Jewish holidays provide a framework to experience the holiness in the flow of time each year. The traditions and mitzvot of each holiday celebration connect me to God, the Jewish People, and Israel.

Am Yisrael and Tikkun Olam: My Jewish Identity - Each individual Jewish voice can find deep meaning and purpose through engagement in Jewish life and community. Jewish responsibility to make the world whole lies in each person's own talents, as it is written in the Torah that each person was created, b'tzelem elohim, in the image of God.

K'lal Yisrael: Jewish History and Community - The history of the Jewish people played a key role in the creation of Israel, Jewish life and the Jewish community as it exists today.

Talmud Torah: Jewish Literature - The Torah provides the origin story and purpose of the Jewish People and inspires the holiness of our connection with God. Lifelong learning of the Torah and Jewish texts fuel the Jewish People's mission to be partners with God through our deeds and actions.

Ivrit: Hebrew - Modern Hebrew connects me to the greater Jewish people as well as traditions in Judaism.

T'fillah: Prayer and Lifecycle - Prayer is the mode and language that can help deepen my relationship with God and my spiritual self while it connects me to the Jewish People.

Eretz Yisrael: Israel - Israel is the Jewish homeland and is a part of Judaism's history, past and present.

Big ideas taught through these types of learning experiences in and out of the classroom:

Community Celebrations:

Building relationships in the Jewish community makes me feel connected and part of a people. Participation in services and community wide celebrations bring Judaism to life.

Family Education: Whole family learning fosters Jewish life in the home.

Hands-on Learning Experiences: Judaism in action shows me how Jewish values are enacted daily.

Youth Group Activities: Create a personal code of ethics incorporating Jewish values as a guide to ethical living.

Ivrit: Hebrew

KINDERGARTEN - BAR/BAT MITZVAH

Hebrew Through Movement:

Every year, small groups of students will work with a native Hebrew speaker to comprehend and speak Modern Hebrew. Listening and speaking builds a foundation of familiarity with the sound and flow of the language, making it an easier transition to reading Hebrew as they begin their more formal Bar/Bat Mitzvah training.

T'fillah:

Clergy will lead us through prayers in Hebrew, weekly as a community. Students gain familiarity with melodies, sanctuary behavior, and the general flow of a service while following along in Hebrew together on a large screen. Each of the Hebrew prayers we recite are included in their Bar/Bat Mitzvah.

Jewish Life Vocabulary:

Every week, new Hebrew or Yiddish phrases that are a part of our Jewish communal lexicon, will be introduced to our students. These phrases will enhance a student's experience within the Jewish community.

Bar/Bat Mitzvah Coach:

About a year before the Bar/Bat Mitzvah date, students will be paired with a coach for one-on-one coaching to prepare for their ceremony. They will learn to decode Hebrew (be able to sound out and read words), perfect prayers, and chant their Torah and Haftarah portions.

Beyachad Teen - A Civil Rights Journey

FOR 8TH-12TH GRADERS AND THEIR PARENTS

Inspired by our tradition's teachings to pursue justice Beyachad Teen, a program for teens and their adults, will explore the Civil Rights Movement and why so many in the Jewish community were compelled to support it. The program will include six Sunday evening programs, one Shabbat experience, and an optional immersive, three day trip to Atlanta, Montgomery, Selma, and Birmingham on a weekend in December, to explore the sites and hear from people who lived it. Teens and parents will learn why Jewish tradition guides us to support the rights of others and how to bring that knowledge to action in our community today.
