All About Me...
Currently a 3rd & 4th-grade religious school teacher, I have worked with children my entire life as a Home Instruction Teacher and tutor of Kindergarten through 6th-grade students. I enjoy watching students understand the concepts from my examples and connections. I look forward to all their Aha! moments.

Specializing in ELA & Math Grades K-6 regular & special education

One-to-one instruction will help your child feel comfortable and confident in learning. My quick and easy rapport allows children to ask for the help they need to understand the content.
Questions

BY RABBI DAN LEVIN
dlevin@tbeboca.org

There is a well-known Hasidic story of a rabbi who was on his way home before Shabbat. A police officer stopped him and asked: “Who are you? Where are you coming from? Where are you going?”

The rabbi thought for a moment and then asked the police officer: “How much do they pay you to stand this post?” The officer answered: “50 Kopecs.”

The rabbi thought for another moment and then said: “I will pay you 100 Kopecs if you promise to stand here every week and ask me those same three questions: Who are you? Where are you coming from? Where are you going?”

As we prepare to celebrate the New Year, tradition invites us to perform what is called a Cheshbon HaNefesh — an accounting of our lives. In many ways, the High Holy Days call us to ask ourselves those same three questions: Who are you? Where are you coming from? Where are you going?

Who Are You?

There are so many ways we can answer this question. How do you define yourself? Sometimes we define ourselves by our professional occupation — I am a teacher, a lawyer, a businessperson, a rabbi. Other times we define ourselves by our family roles — I am a parent, a spouse, a sibling, grandparent, or grandchild. We can also define ourselves by other elements of our identity — our avocations, our ethnic heritage, our community, our people.

As we prepare to celebrate the New Year, tradition invites us to perform what is called a Cheshbon HaNefesh — an accounting of our lives. In many ways, the High Holy Days call us to ask ourselves those same three questions.

But if we go deeper, we can define ourselves by elements more intrinsic to our core: our values, our moral commitments, our fundamental beliefs, the aspects of ourselves that truly define our humanity and spiritual selves.

Where Are You Coming From?

This is the second step of our accounting. As we look back at the days and weeks we were so blessed to live in the last year, how did we choose to use them? Toward what did we aim? What were our goals? What have we accomplished? Where have we failed? Who did we champion? Who did we injure? Looking back, what is there in our accounting that rightly makes us proud? And looking back, what is there in our past that makes us appropriately ashamed.

Looking further back, we can review the trajectory of our lives. Where did we start? What were we taught and what have we learned? Who were the people that influenced us, who helped to form and shape us through their example, their mentorship, their guidance and love? What were the events that most deeply shaped our sense of ourselves, the traumas that wounded us, the triumphs that inspired us?

Where Are You Going?

As we look forward to the New Year 5784, we get to be intentional in setting goals and resolutions. Who do we want to be — for ourselves, and in our relationships? What will be the values and principles which will guide our steps, and from which we will refuse to waver? What do we seek to accomplish and why would those goals be worthy of our efforts and investment of precious time? What do we owe to ourselves, our families, our community, our people, our country, the world?

The month of Elul, which precedes our celebration of the New Year and the holy days of Tishri, inspires us to begin this important introspective work. We invite you to avail yourself of the programming Temple Beth El is offering so that we can prepare for the spiritual work of the Days of Awe.

This work reaches a crescendo on Selichot — the Saturday night prior to Rosh HaShanah. This year, with the extraordinary composer and singer Chava Mirel, we will gather to explore these questions together as a community, and to lift our spirits as we welcome the New Year. See page 6 for more information.

Who are you? Where are you coming from? Where are you going? May these questions and more lead us to a better sense of life and self in 5784. We wish you a Shana Tova — a good and blessed New Year.
As we approach the sacred time of the Jewish New Year, I find myself reflecting on the significance of Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur. During the High Holy Days, we come together in prayer and reflection. My hope is that we also find strength and solace in the unity of our Temple community.

These are days of introspection, renewal, and repentance. We look back on the past year and contemplate the paths we have walked as individuals and as a community. It is a time of spiritual awakening, when we turn to God in prayer, seeking guidance, and expressing gratitude for the blessings in our lives. It is a time of soul-searching and a reminder of the potential for transformation that resides within each of us to embrace change and to embark on a journey of personal growth and improvement.

Looking ahead, I am excited about the future of our congregation and where we are going. We are constantly asking questions about what we should keep doing, stop doing, or start doing to be more effective. The Temple's new strategic plan reflects our commitment to enhancing our community's sense of belonging and engagement by offering exceptional Jewish experiences. It envisions a Temple Beth El that continues to be a source of inspiration, love, and support for each of our members. Together, we will explore new opportunities for learning, worship celebration and furthering our commitment to Tikkun Olam and social justice.

As we embark on this journey of growth and renewal, let us embrace the spirit of togetherness and strength that has defined our community. Together, we will continue to inspire, learn, and build a vibrant and thriving Temple Beth El.

As we gather to celebrate Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur, let us approach these High Holy Days with open hearts and minds, ready to embrace change, seek forgiveness, and strengthen our connection to our faith and to one another.

May the blessings of the New Year be upon us all and may the journey we undertake together be filled with hope, joy, and meaning. L'Shana Tova.

NEW MUSIC FOR THE NEW YEAR
BY CANTOR LORI BROCK

We are excited to welcome the incredible award-winning composer, performer and spiritual teacher of mindfulness and meditation, Chava Mirel to our Selichot service.

As we explore these three questions, I think about the evolution of Jewish music here at Temple Beth El for over 26 years. When I first came to Beth El we were using melodies from classical reform and were beginning to mix in the new folk and pop melodies of composers that included Debbie Friedman z”l and Craig Taubman. We evolved over the years to bring in more Hebrew, niggunim (wordless melodies), influences of music from Israel and even sporadic use of secular music. We became very eclectic.

Now with the Reform movement focusing on spirituality and living intentionally through meditation and mindfulness, a new feel of music has emerged with an inspiring generation of composers. They use music to create that deep connection where music enriches our text and inspires our souls.

It is exciting to have these artists come into our congregation and infuse their gifts into our worship. Many of you experienced this with Elana Arian this past year with her melodies and teaching. And we are continuing on this journey with Chava Mirel for Selichot and later in the year we will be joined for Shabbat Shira by Rabbi Josh Warshawsky. How blessed we are to pray and learn with these brilliant Jewish artists.

I’d like to especially thank our members of Friends of Music and the Arts for making these exciting and inspiring experiences possible.

L’Shana Tova!
Beth El Talks 5784 Windows Into Israel

Monday, September 25 | 2:00pm | Schaefer Family Campus

In celebration of Israel’s 75th birthday, we welcome four remarkable members of the Temple Beth El community to share their unique experience and perspective on Israel, her history and today.

Rabbi Mordecai Schreiber
Born in Haifa, Rabbi Mordecai Schreiber witnessed the birth of the State of Israel as a boy, and grew up with the newly born Jewish State. As a rabbi, he served Reform congregations in the U.S. and Central America. A master translator, he served as National Education Director for BBYO in Washington, D.C. He is the author of books about prayer, the Bible, the Holocaust, and the State of Israel.

Lee And Izzy Rotter
Born in Israel and raised in ultra-Orthodox families, Lee and Izzy each left their homes and way of life. A few years after getting married and having two children, they moved from Jerusalem to Boca Raton. They will share their extraordinary journey, and how they came to find their chosen path to Judaism at Temple Beth El, where they have found a spiritual home, friends, and a community.

Nadine Fahoum
Growing up as an Arab-Israeli in Haifa, Nadine began to play tennis at the age of 9. By the age of 11, she won Israel’s national championship, and held the title of Israel’s number one tennis player until the age of 18. She competed for Israel on the world stage, including the US Open and Wimbledon juniors. Her story is “about the unifying power of a game, a mother’s vision, and the endless possibilities when we pursue what we love.”

Reverse the Tashlich Beach Cleanup

Saturday, September 23, 2023 | 9:00am – 11:00am
Atlantic Dunes Pavilion – metered parking
1605 S Ocean Blvd., Delray Beach

For thousands of years, in a ritual called Tashlich, Jews around the world have symbolically cast their sins into a body of water at the High Holy Days. For over 60 years humans have thrown their trash and debris into bodies of water as well. Now, Temple Beth El, Tikkun HaYam (Repair the Sea), and Jewish communities around the world are taking those sins out of the water with a Reverse the Tashlich Beach Cleanup.

Meet at Atlantic Dunes Park Pavilion (metered parking is available across the street) for a short Tashlich service followed by a beach cleanup.

Participants should bring a hat, towel, sunscreen and water.
Dress appropriately for a beach cleanup.

The three gorgeous tapestries in the Welcome Center of our Temple’s Schaefer Family Campus are a gift from Sherry z”l and Ken Endelson. They illustrate the love we feel for our Judaism, for each other, and for the Jewish people.

Like these glorious works of art, our Temple Beth El community is a magnificent tapestry, woven by all of us—a tapestry of Jewish life, learning, community and spiritual growth; of friends and family, of children laughing and growing; of coming together to worship, to learn, to support each other through challenges, and to celebrate life’s most joyous moments.

Our Annual Appeal is the time we come together to weave together the financial support needed to meet the needs of our Temple community. Through your generosity, we ensure that nobody is turned away or denied the opportunity to experience these meaningful, often life-changing Temple Beth El experiences due to financial need.

Can we count on your support? Temple Beth El’s Annual Appeal is our most significant fundraiser.

Your support—at any level—makes a difference. To make your contribution, please scan the QR code or visit tbeboca.org/annual-giving

Temple Beth El offers a weekly course taught by the clergy and other experts in the community. The course covers topics such as holidays, customs, life-cycle events, values, theology, prayers and rituals, Jewish texts, history, and Hebrew. There is an expectation that one will complete weekly reading assignments. At the end of the course, there will be a comprehensive short answer review given to those individuals who are pursuing conversion. Introduction to Judaism is open to Jews and non-Jews alike. Often, a Jewish partner, friend, or family member will choose to accompany the prospective convert to the classes. This class is also useful for non-Jews who do not intend to convert but are interested in learning more about Judaism. It is also helpful for people who were born and raised as Jews but feel as though they never received a solid Jewish education. All are welcome.

Introduction to Kabbalah

Rabbi Larry Kotok

Tuesdays, October 10, 17 & 24, 31 (No class October 3)
12:00 – 1:00pm

In person and on Virtual Beth El/Zoom

Explore the relationship between Christianity and Judaism with a rabbi who is on faculty at a Catholic seminary. In a climate of rising antisemitism how do we understand the friction and the commonality between us and learn to appreciate each other?

Rabbi Laurence A. Kotok, DD, is Temple B’rith Kodesh’s Rabbinic Scholar and Senior Advisor for Lifelong Jewish Learning. In 2014, Rabbi Kotok retired from his post as Senior Rabbi. He served the community for 18 years. Prior to arriving in Rochester in the summer of 1996, Rabbi Kotok served the North Country Reform Temple Ner Tamid of Glen Cove for 22 years. Rabbi Kotok currently serves on the faculty at the Florida-wide Catholic Seminary.
Sunday Mornings 9:15-10:45am
Liumi West Retreat

In the beautiful setting of Liumi West Retreat, just 10 minutes from our Beck Family Campus, take a little time to focus on yourself, to breathe and to bond with other incredible women in our community. We will use Brene Brown’s book, The Gifts of Imperfection, as an anchor for meaningful and interactive discussions framed with Jewish wisdom to welcome each new month. This program will be led by Cantorial Soloist Michelle Auslander Cohen and Rabbi Amy Grosblatt Pessah. Coffee and light refreshments will be available.

Join a Music Ensemble

If music is your passion, Beth El is the place to be! We have many opportunities for you or your children to grow your passion for musical expression. Musical ensembles are led by Cantorial Soloists Michelle Auslander Cohen and Jake Harris.

ADULTS

Koleinu
Wednesdays, 7:30-8:45pm • Schaefer Family Campus
This group is for people who love Jewish music and love to sing! No prior experience is necessary, just a passion for community and singing!

Kol Zimrah
Wednesdays, 6:30-7:30pm • Schaefer Family Campus
This is a small, audition-based group of people who read and learn music on their own, can hold a harmony part with ease, and have some high-level amateur/professional experience.

Both adult choir ensembles participate in a variety of Temple programming, including Friday night services, holidays, social events and end of year concert. Sign up to receive a rehearsal schedule.

Adult Band
Tuesdays, 7:15-8:30pm • Beck Family Campus
Your kids should not be the only ones having fun making music! For adults who have an instrument they are already somewhat proficient in, this is your chance to meet other parents, make music and have a great time! The Temple Beth El adult band is a fantastic way to apply your love of music within the walls of the temple and out in the community.

Please register at tbeboca.org/music
Rehearsals begin after the High Holy Days, register to receive further information and scheduling.
For questions, please email: Michelle Cohen mcohen@tbeboca.org or Jake Harris jharris@tbeboca.org

KIDS AND TEENS

Malachim
Sundays, 12-1pm after Religious School • Beck Family Campus
This is a youth choir for kids in 3rd-5th grade. (If your child is involved with Barclay’s Joseph and the Technicolor Dreamcoat, this would not be an option in the fall). We have a lot of fun, lunch is provided, and kids participate in various Friday night services and holidays, nursing homes and an end of year concert.

Teen Band
Tuesdays, 5:30-6:45pm • Beck Family Campus
The Temple Beth El Teen Band is an inclusive and exciting way for students to deepen their connections to music and our community through melodies, both sacred and secular. Teens learn about a variety of musical styles, as well as have opportunities for performances at the Temple and beyond.

“Jewish tradition teaches that music unlocks the door to divine connection.” –Joey Wiesenber
Join us for an evening of beautiful melodies from classical to Klezmer to Broadway and more! Orit has appeared as soloist with many orchestras all over the world including the Israel Philharmonic under Zubin Mehta and the Jerusalem Symphony. She will share her rhythm and spirit in this wonderful evening of musical favorites!

Grace* is an 18-year-old girl from Palm Beach County who aged out of foster care just a few weeks before graduating high school. Due to turning 18, Grace’s foster care family was unable to continue to provide for her in their home. Grace’s father lives out-of-state and her mother is incarcerated; her only legal family was an aunt living in a shelter. Grace ended up living in her car. She encountered daily interactions with violent situations and feared for her life every evening, often narrowly escaping solicitation and trafficking. Grace had already been accepted to college and would be able to move into transitional housing through Vita Nova once she graduated high school. She just needed a few nights in a safe environment to get her to high school graduation. This is when her school counselor contacted The Giving Tree. He completed a request for assistance through our website and was immediately contacted by Lauren Gross. The school counselor and Lauren worked together to find a local motel that would accept remote payment and allow Grace to stay for the week. One week in a safe, clean hotel room provided Grace with the ability to be the first person in her family to graduate high school and then attend college.

This story describes just one of thousands of requests completed through our Quiet Giving Program which provides immediate assistance in emergency situations. The requests are received through our website every day and are met with kindness, empathy and a quick solution. In just the first six months of 2023, The Giving Tree has fulfilled over 300 requests through Quiet Giving. Our volunteers also maintain a fully-stocked children’s clothing closet, which allows us to immediately respond to needs for clothing, socks, underwear and shoes and provide a place for caseworkers to come to pick up their supplies.

The Giving Tree is always in need of volunteers and leadership for our Back-to-School Drive, Holiday Gift Giving Program, Clothing Closet and Quiet Giving Program. To get involved, please visit thegivingtreeboca.org or contact Lauren Gross and Jennie Kreger, The Giving Tree Co-Chairs at thegivingtreeboca@gmail.com.

Temple Beth El has been a proud supporter of the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society’s Light the Night, thanks in great part to Mike z”l and Judy Blackman. Sadly, Mike passed away this past year, but the passion to support LLS continues to burn strongly. This year, Mike’s commitment to LLS will be recognized at the Light the Night event on Saturday, October 21 at the Meyer Amphitheater in West Palm Beach.

If you are interested in making a contribution or participating in the walk, please support our Temple Beth El team honoring Mike’s memory at tbeboca.org/social-action

Shabbat Noah Pet Fair and Blessing

Saturday, October 21, 2023
10:00am Pet Fair and Pet Adoption
10:30am Shabbat Noah Pet Blessing
South County Regional Park – Pond Apple Pavilion
Register at tbeboca.org/pet-blessing

Calling all pet owners! In honor of Shabbat Noah, bring your dog, your cat, your pet hamster, or whatever pet you might have (no horses, pigs or goats) to South County Regional Park. Come for a special day of blessing the animals who are our friends, our family and our companions. Those who are looking for that special pet, join us and the several animal rescue organizations and help a dog find their forever family.

Starting at 10:00am, you can visit local animal business booths for pet related products and services. The pet blessing from our clergy begins at 10:30am with lots of fun and playtime to follow.
As Temple Beth El continues to grow and flourish, the question always remains – how do we remain the warm, hamish synagogue we have always been? The Membership and Engagement team pondered how to assist our members in connecting with each other.

Flash back to our younger years, when every one of us can remember the pit in our stomach when we walked into a new situation, not knowing anyone. This feeling comes back walking into any new setting, not knowing people and having to find a seat. Our eyes dart back and forth hoping to see someone we know, to hopefully join them. Whether you are 25 or 75, no one likes that situation. We, at Temple Beth El believed this should never happen.

So, how do we accomplish this? Small group engagement is the key. From friendship groups called Beth El Chavurot to interest groups called Beth El Circles, members can join these groups and connect. It’s amazing to find other people who are in the same stage of life as you, where you can share life experiences. Soon, you are creating life experiences and memories together.

Beth El Chavurot and Beth El Circles are just two ways that make our large Temple feel like a family. Learn more and find a group that’s right for you tbeboca.org/small-groups or by contacting Julie Guzy, Engagement and Programming Manager, at jguzy@tbeboca.org
The Best School Year Yet

As I child, I loved the beginning of each school year. I have clear memories of shopping for school supplies. I remember coming home and opening my new box of crayons. I can still visualize the vibrant colors and their perfect points. I can still smell their newness. In that smell is the promise of great things to come in the school year ahead.

One of the things that is unique about being an educator is how different each year is. With new children and parents in your class come new opportunities and challenges. The chance to reinvent yourself annually through incorporating new curriculum ideas. Getting to know the students in your room, their likes and dislikes, keeps things exciting and invigorating.

As we ushered in a new school year in early August, we look forward to continuing to build on the successes of the past. Our “We’ve Got You Covered” campaign helped us raise enough funds to purchase a much-needed shade structure for our natural themed playground. There is no question that the South Florida sun and heat make playground shade a necessity. Thank you so much to everyone that contributed to help us meet our goal. A very special note of gratitude to Brotherhood for the very generous match! We have some additional “backyard” enhancements that we are planning for the upcoming year!

Parenthood’s new Social Action Chairs were very busy last year! They planned and executed a very successful Mitzvah Day that benefitted many charities, both local and Israeli. Over 100 Early Learning Center families participated in this inaugural event. We are looking forward to this becoming an annual event! The upcoming Mitzvah Day will be on March 9, 2024!

We are blessed to have an incredible staff that is always looking to improve their teaching skills. We provide professional development annually for our teachers and this year our focus is on Conscious Discipline. Conscious Discipline is a strategy that teaches children to name their emotions, regulate them and then solve problems. It helps teach conflict resolution and independent problem solving. These are life skills that will help our students be successful long after they graduate from our program.

At the Beth El Early Learning Center we are always looking at what we can do better, how we can improve our already incredible program and how we can better serve our students and their families. We are looking forward to the 2023-24 school year with great anticipation. This year will be the best one yet!
Welcome Tami and Beth

The Religious School is very excited to announce two new additions to our professional team. Welcome Tami Weisman, RJE*, and Beth Nemeroff as Assistant Directors this year. Both Tami and Beth bring Masters of Education degrees and years of experience to our program. Their expertise will ensure that our expanded educational goals will be met with the utmost care and intention, aligning within the vision of our congregation.

Tami Weisman, RJE, has been a part of our Temple Beth El community both as a parent, an educator and the spouse of Rabbi Greg. She received her Master’s in Jewish Education at Hebrew Union College – Jewish Institute of Religion and worked as the Religious School director at University Synagogue in Los Angeles. In the last 10 years, she has tutored B’nai Mitzvah students, co-led Family Participation services, taught classes and most recently, oversaw lesson plans and provided classroom management support for our faculty on Sunday mornings as our Curriculum Advisor and Faculty Mentor.

Beth Nemeroff comes to us from Orlando where she has worked for Seminole and Orange County School Districts in progressively responsible roles as teacher, instructional coach and assistant principal. Beth has her Masters of Education in Teacher Leadership from the University of Central Florida. Beth grew up in our area, attending Donna Klein Jewish Academy and continuing to be active as a high school and college student in Jewish life. She returns to the area with her husband, Michael and their two boys, Corey and Jake who will be attending the Early Learning Center.

You will see Beth at our Schaefer Family Campus in our Sunday morning program as well as Tuesday afternoons at Beck Family Campus. Tami will continue to support our faculty on Sunday mornings and will be overseeing the Hebrew tutoring program.

Please join me in welcoming them when you see them.

*RJE = Reform Jewish Educator, a title bestowed on educators that reflects professional and academic achievements.

Sisterhood Update

Sisterhood is like a noodle kugel: a beautiful tradition in which everyone has their own recipe, and their own secret ingredient, but everything comes together in a lovely, delicious presentation. So, too, does Sisterhood have a collection of wonderfully intelligent women, each with their own secret talent to share, and together we plan, coordinate, staff, and/or just attend our programs. The choice of how much participation is different for every member. We have Leaders, Worker Bees, and those who prefer to simply attend our events. Every level of participation is important! And what is in store for Sisterhood during these next two months? Plenty of excitement!

Sisterhood will continue our practice of decorating the Sukkah on the Bima, as we have for over a decade, led by our Sukkah Maven, Sharyn Schneiderman. This year we will meet on the Bima at 7 pm, Wednesday, September 27th. Please stop by, even if you just want to schmooze and help clean up.

October brings an entirely new twist: wine and war. The book, “Wine and War: The French, the Nazis, and the Battle for France’s Greatest Treasure” tells the story of the French wine producers who undertook ingenious and often daring measures to save their finest and most precious crops and bottles as the Germans closed in on them. We will discuss the book and hear from a special guest Sommelier to better our wine knowledge. The location will be off-site. When available, please sign up quickly before it sells out.

We are always looking to recruit new faces to help at the gift shop, particularly for that hour after Oneg on Friday nights. No retail experience is necessary, just a desire to meet TBE members and help them choose their items. We also have occasional “wrapping parties” for the items that Sisterhood presents to newlyweds and B’nai Mitzvahs. You should join us!

College Outreach 2023

It’s that time of year! Kids go away to college, and we are here to give them a little piece of home. Sisterhood will send holiday packages to your college student for Rosh HaShanah, Chanukah, Purim and Passover. We wish them a Happy Birthday with a fun e-card, too! This service is open to all Temple Beth El members with college students. There is no charge, but donations are always welcome.

Brotherhood Update

Brotherhood has long been a tight group of dedicated men, hailing from diverse backgrounds yet united in their pursuit of religious, social, and professional enrichment. As a vital part of Temple Beth El of Boca Raton, the Brotherhood fosters a sense of unity and spiritual fulfillment, embodying shared values and collective responsibility towards our Temple community and wider society.

As the congregation has grown in size, the Brotherhood remains a key stakeholder in bringing together the membership on a regular basis. Through the years, the group has enriched the temple's cultural fabric with a wide range of initiatives and interactive activities. Through our annual golf event (January 29—save the date!) and other fundraisers we have raised hundreds of thousands of dollars to help our Temple and local community.

Moving forward, the Brotherhood Group is poised to expand its programming to impact a wider membership. Now that all members of the Temple receive complimentary membership in Brotherhood, we’re aiming for everyone to come to at least one Brotherhood event this year. We will have one major event a month (e.g. Whiskey Tasting for Sukkot, Entrepreneurship event in November), combined with regular recurring meetups (Networking breakfasts, poker games, and board meetings). These events will carry forward the group’s tradition of balancing religious duty with modern social practices, encapsulating their commitment to both community and personal growth.

The Brotherhood’s journey is a testament to our steadfast community involvement and enduring camaraderie. Our commitment to Temple Beth El mirrors the joy of shared experiences and amplifies the richness of Jewish traditions, shaping a future as vibrant and meaningful as our illustrious past.

When Friends ask who to call for help, JFS at Home is on the top of their list.

Shirley and Bart (z”l) Weisman

“As a family with many years of experience working with older adults through our nursing homes, we know first-hand how important quality, pre-screened caregivers are in assisting people to age in place. JFS at Home is a wonderful organization that helps so many in our community and has excellent nurses and aides who really care about their clients. We highly recommend JFS at Home for both short-term and long-term needs.”
