A LIFE CARE COMMUNITY IN BOCA RATON

Resilience and Renewal

BY RABBI DAN LEVIN
DLevin@tbeboca.org

“You cannot change the wind, but you can adjust the sails.”

– Elizabeth Edwards

When I was in sixth grade, our class hopped on a school bus for a week of what they called “outdoor education.” The bus pulled into a camp, and we spent the week getting muddy in the great outdoors.

One day, each of us was handed a compass. With a map and a few friends, we had to use our compass to navigate in the woods to get through a scavenger hunt. It was called “orienteering.”

I remember how easy it was to get turned around – how we would walk for a bit, and then stop and check our compass to make sure we were on the right path.

Life is a game of spiritual orienteering. As we

In some ways the Shofar calls us to return, to come back in when we’ve strayed too far. But the Shofar is also a call for rebirth and renewal.

make our way along our journeys in life, we have to take time to stop, check our compass, and make sure we’re heading in the right direction.

It’s very easy in life to get turned around, to lose sight of where you thought you were headed. Careers don’t always follow the path we planned. Our marriages sometimes stumble over bumpy ground. Raising children takes us on paths we never imagined. Illness and loss can make us disoriented. Disappointment can make us cynical. Anger can make us blind.

As the month of Elul comes and the New Year approaches, what does the sounding of the Shofar call us to do?

Rabbi Samuel Chiel explained, “I heard it from a lifeguard in California, from a young man who works as both a lifeguard and as a counselor at a camp: “Just as when you wander too far out into the deep water

I blow my whistle as a warning that you are getting into danger, so we blow the Shofar to remind us that we shouldn’t wander away too far into deep water.”

In some ways the Shofar calls us to return, to come back in when we’ve strayed too far.

But the Shofar is also a call for rebirth and renewal. Rosh HaShanah begins on the new moon, when the skies are dark and the light is hidden. It reminds us of the first moments of Creation, when the universe was also dark. Rabbi Schneur Zalman of Liadi, in his famous work called The Tanya, suggests that with the sounding of the Shofar, we call on God to restore light into our darkened world, a new light to help us see all that was once hidden for us.

The Shofar also reminds us of our days at Mount Sinai, when it was the call of the Shofar that called us to attention when God spoke to us all together as one and gave us the gift of Torah – all the values and principles, teachings and traditions that guide us along our path in life.

This is a time for renewal and reorientation. It is a time for us to stop, to check our maps and our compasses, and reassess our direction and our path. It is a time for us to restore our shaken commitments to the ethics and ideals that make us righteous and holy people. It is a time for us to seek a Divine Light that will point for us the way we should go and the way we should live.

It isn’t easy. Many of us shoulder burdens that weigh us down and are so difficult to bear. But if we calibrate our moral compasses correctly, and we check the map of Torah and tradition, we will find our way back to each other, we will find the collective strength to become all we could dream to be, and will find that God will join us on our journey together.

New Season, New Energy

BY GINA SHUGAR
TEMPLE BETH EL
PRESIDENT
GShugar@tbeboca.org

Fall is a wonderful opportunity for renewal. With the start of a new school year and the High Holy Days just around the corner, it's filled with excitement and fresh beginnings.

If you're looking to renew personally as well, this Chronicle is chocked full of opportunities to grow, connect and build the life you wish to have, one brick at a time. Take the time to read it entirely and just sign up. You won't regret it! Next, some updates from the governance perspective...

The Temple held our annual meeting in late May, where the membership approved the slate of our new Board of Trustees. There are currently 18 members on the Board of Trustees. We're excited to welcome some new faces. George Gonzalez has joined our board as VP of Finance, taking over from Josh Marcus, who deftly served in that position for two terms and remains on the board as a Trustee. George and his wife Stefanie have been Temple members since 2014. Additionally, Ignacio Diaz has joined as a Trustee. Ignacio and his wife Daniela have been part of our community since 2014. A very warm welcome to George and Ignacio — we're looking forward to their contributions and insights.

Brooke Perez, previously a Trustee, is now our VP of Education, overseeing our religious school. Brooke has a unique perspective as a teacher in the religious school, and has a son who is currently in middle school. Kevin Romer, another former Trustee, steps into the role of VP of Social Justice. Kevin and his wife Lisajane have been members since 1996. Congratulations to Brooke and Kevin!

I have now completed the first year of my three-year term as President, and it's truly been one of the most rewarding experiences of my life. Temple Beth El is not only exceptional, but also a genuine community guided by love. I'm honored to serve, and please remember that I'm always here to help.

As President, one of my responsibilities is overseeing the creation and implementation of our strategic plan. The Board adopted our current 3-5 year plan in January 2024, and we're approximately 18 months into the process. I'm excited to share that we've made great progress in all four strategic areas:

Worship: We've introduced creative Shabbat worship experiences and engaging activities. This year, expect even more innovation during the High Holy Days. See pages 9-14 for more information.

Social Justice: Our Social Justice Committee is established, and we've formed Social Justice Circles focusing on 13 Core Positions identified by our task force. See pages 36-37 for more information and visit tbeboca.org/social-justice to find ways you can get involved.

Religious School Engagement: The Religious School and Engagement and Programming teams are actively working to integrate our religious school families more deeply into our broader Temple community.

Endowment: We've made substantial progress, but are still approximately $10 million short of our $36 million goal. Now, more than ever, it's crucial to secure the future of Temple Beth El and support Jewish continuity. I urge you to make a meaningful gift.

Thank you for being part of our wonderful community. Here's to an inspiring and meaningful new season ahead!

A Year of Celebration and Transition in Our Temple Beth El Clergy and Music Team

After 28 years of devoted service to Temple Beth El, we share with heartfelt appreciation that Cantor Lori Brock will be transitioning into the role of Cantor Emerita in the summer of 2026. While she will step back from regularly leading services, Cantor Lori will continue to share her talent and creativity with our community and remain involved in select programs and life cycle events—recognizing her lasting impact and continued connection to Temple Beth El.

Cantor Brock has been an integral part of Temple Beth El's clergy team since 1997 and has served with great distinction as our Cantor and spiritual leader since 2006. Her voice, heart, and spiritual leadership have enriched our congregation in immeasurable ways. Her passionate creativity and tireless ingenuity have brought us programs that have grown our minds, her tender care has touched our hearts, and her music has lifted our spirits, in moments of anguish and celebration.

To ensure a thoughtful and seamless transition, a Cantor Search Committee has been formed and has begun the important work of identifying the next member of our clergy team to help guide us forward with vision and harmony.

As we prepare for this transition, we are also excited to share some updates to our outstanding music team. Michelle Auslander Cohen, who has faithfully served Temple Beth El for the past 10 years as Cantorial Soloist, has been elevated to the role of Senior Cantorial Associate. Michelle's warmth, talent, and commitment have made her a beloved presence in our services, lifecycle events, and community programs. She has nurtured our youngest members in our Early Learning Center, created new and innovative initiatives in adult spiritual growth, and built our volunteer singing groups and choirs. We are thrilled to recognize her expanded leadership within our music department.

Cantor Jake Harris will continue in his vital role, sharing his passion for Jewish music with our congregation and leading our youth and teen choirs with creativity, joy, and dedication.

We are also excited to welcome Chris Mason to our team. A talented music educator, cantorial student, and gifted spiritual musician, Chris will focus on leading music education initiatives and curriculum at both the Beth El Early Learning Center and the Religious School. In addition, Chris will lend his voice and presence as a Cantorial Soloist at our Schaefer Family Campus, bringing his energy and spirit to our congregational worship.

This coming year will be one of reflection, celebration, and evolution. We invite you to join us throughout the year as we pay tribute to Cantor Brock and embrace this meaningful journey together as one sacred community.

With Rabbi Amy Grossblatt Pessah

Tuesdays,

September 2, 9 and 16

12:00 – 1:00pm

Schaefer Family Campus
and Virtual Beth El (Zoom)

Just as musicians prepare for a big performance and athletes prepare to run a marathon, we, as Jews, are gifted the opportunity to take the month of Elul, which precedes the High Holy Days, to prepare ourselves and our souls for this holy time of year. Join Rabbi Amy Grossblatt Pessah as she leads us on a transformative journey of reflection, renewal, and connection. This three-part series offers a structured path to deepen your spiritual preparation, drawing from Jewish tradition and contemporary insights, focusing on the ideas of awakening, teshuvah, tzedakah, and connection to the Divine.

Many Hands One Heart

2025-2026 TEMPLE BETH EL Annual Appeal

When we come together with love and support, we transform the lives of those in need. Temple Beth El's Annual Appeal is the moment when we give what we can for those who can't—where our many hands perform the heavy lift of seemingly insurmountable obstacles that so many of our members face every day.

Torah teaches us that tzedakah is an act of righteousness and compassion – more than just the giving of money, but a sacred responsibility to support others in need and make a positive impact on their lives.

The Annual Appeal is a beautiful form of direct support. It's never “charity from strangers,” but rather “love from neighbors.” Through your meaningful support of this campaign, you are placing a hand on a vulnerable member's shoulder and saying, “You're not alone. You matter to us because YOU ARE US. We won't let you fall.”

Temple Beth El's Annual Appeal goes beyond addressing challenges.
Through our many hands, it doesn't just solve problems...

It heals.

This year, it will take many hands for us to reach our Annual Campaign goal of $500,000 – a milestone that will allow us to provide scholarships & financial assistance for more than 500 member households who will need our support for Congregational Commitment, Religious School tuition, Early Learning Center tuition and financial crisis intervention.

FROM Lutheran Gatherings TO Legacy Giving

The Ivers' journey to Temple Beth El starts and ends similarly for many of our members. They started their lives up north and found their way to Boca.

For Joel and Susan, the similarities end there. We sat down with Susan and Joel to dive deeper into their journey and find out what inspired an interfaith couple to move from the Unitarian Church and build a new life in a Reform synagogue in which they would choose to leave their legacy.

AN INTERVIEW WITH SUSAN & JOEL IVERS

Where did you two meet?

SUSAN: We met in 1973 in the graduate dormitory cafeteria of Indiana University. Two years later, we were married in the university's Beck Chapel (no relation, but definitely a foreshadow of things to come). Our union, performed by a Unitarian minister, was attended by both families; Joel's being observantly Jewish and mine Lutheran and central to my identity.

How did religion play a role early in your marriage?

JOEL: After relocating to Cincinnati, it was our hope that perhaps the Unitarian Church could be a place for our religious views to converge. We attended services, but it never felt like the right fit. After sunsetting the Unitarian approach, we welcomed our daughter, Sarah, in 1979 and son, Scott, in 1982. During this time, Susan joined a Lutheran Church, while both Susan and I became active members at Rockdale Temple.

Tell us about the "Bat Mitzvah that changed it all."

JOEL: It wasn't until a Bat Mitzvah in 1987 that our journey began to change. Arriving a few minutes late for the service (if you know us, you won't find that surprising), the only seats available were front and center. Our son, Scott, was mesmerized by the service, the tradition and the entire experience. Immediately following, Scott looked at us and said, "I want to be Jewish like my Daddy." Thus began our family's Reform Jewish experience at Rockdale and Isaac Mayer Wise Temples, through membership, religious school, B'nai Mitzvah and Confirmation. All three of our children, and now our grandchildren, would follow suit and continue after we relocated to Boca.

What made you choose Temple Beth El?

SUSAN: A Mausoleum Party.

Well, that's a first. Can you go a little deeper on that?

JOEL: In the building in which we live, we had made friends with an interfaith couple who had purchased a Beth El Mausoleum crypt. They invited us to a reception and a cocktail party for mausoleum purchasers, for everyone to "get to know their future forever neighbors." The event was wonderful, and all the clergy introduced themselves and were like no other clergy we had met before. Michelle Cohen performed and we remember bonding with her over our mutual alumni status at Indiana University. We knew we had found our new spiritual home.

Susan, you recently converted to Judaism. Why did you decide to convert after all these years?

SUSAN: I had been immersed in Judaism for over 45 years prior to converting, but truly becoming a "Jew by choice" was a journey that culminated at Temple Beth El. I was becoming a Jew with every passing Holy Day and holiday celebration, from preparing the meals passed down from my Jewish mother-in-law to hearing and feeling the emotions of Kol Nidre and experiencing the deeply meaningful celebrations of each and every Jewish milestone for our family. My Jewish journey is a montage that is long and wide, and one that I was still discovering when we joined Beth El. I chose conversion through Temple Beth El's Rabbis, Cantors and the community as a whole welcoming me with open arms and hearts. If we didn't find Temple Beth El, I am not sure I would have ever converted. The genuine interest in caring exhibited by everyone at Beth El, combined with the camaraderie of temple friends has made a world of difference and paved the way for me to embark on this new "officially Jewish" beginning.

What inspired you to make a lead gift to the BE The Future Endowment Campaign?

JOEL: The community that Temple Beth El creates is like none other. The clergy and professional staff work tirelessly to deliver inclusive and exceptional Jewish experiences, not just on the Holy Days, but 365 days a year. We were blown away the first time we attended services. Rabbi Dan made it a point to introduce himself and engage with us. We didn't just feel welcomed, we felt appreciated and wanted - an overwhelming experience that we had not always felt at the two synagogues we were at prior. In Cincinnati - we were both involved and celebrated our children's milestones there, but Susan was not inspired to convert. We never felt the same connections and didn't create the bonds of love we've created here.

Other people, future members of the community whom we have never met or may never meet, deserve that same opportunity to come in from the outside and feel the embrace we felt.

We want the community to always be as strong, inclusive and welcoming as we have it now.

SUSAN: Supporting the BE The Future Campaign is our way of ensuring that Temple Beth El can be the incredible community it is today long into the future. If we all chip in and do our part, we can make sure current and future generations, despite their financial circumstances, will be able to have Temple Beth El as their house of worship and spiritual safety-net. It was our pleasure to support the campaign.

Temple Beth El extends its sincere appreciation to Joel, Susan, and all who have supported the BE The Future Endowment Campaign.

*Heal us, Adonai,
 and we shall be healed,
 save us and we shall be saved,
 for You are our praise.
 Bring complete healing to all our wounds.*

Thank you to the countless members who have dedicated their time, effort and love through the years to this endeavor and continue to do so.

In our tradition, healing is a sacred journey. Offering prayers for healing is rooted in our Torah as Moses cries out a soulful prayer to God asking for his sister, Miriam, to be healed from illness. We recite a daily prayer for healing as part of the amidah and together we sing Mi Sheberach on Shabbat in front of the open ark calling upon the Divine to bring the blessing of healing, strength, and courage to those in need. It reminds us that in moments of illness or pain, we are not alone. We are held in prayer, in community, in love and in God's embrace.

years members of our Temple Beth El Sisterhood have been knitting healing blankets, stitched with love, for those in need of a warm embrace.

This exceptional initiative was thoughtfully launched by Judy Blackman when she saw a need. "One of the clergy members was ordering hand-made quilts from an Indian tribe in Arizona; she mentioned it to me and I said we could make hand-made blankets and it could be a Sisterhood project. Cindy Chassan then helped launch this with me and Sisterhood

I too was one of the recipients, and I cherish that blanket as a reminder of what it represents in my own healing journey.

– Helayne Rosenblum

There is comfort in knowing that your community is offering prayers of healing for you and thinking about you as you experience challenge and illness. At Temple Beth El, accompanying our members on their healing journey is a sacred responsibility. Our clergy visit people in the hospital weekly and offer support and care. Our Bikkur Cholim group makes phone calls to check in and visits those who are navigating long term illness. And for the past 20 funded it". This special initiative has grown into an integral part of our Temple's core mission "to enrich lives by generating bonds of love".

Stitch by stitch, square by square – members volunteer as leaders, teachers and participants to lovingly create healing blankets in the hopes of lifting the spirits of fellow congregants who are facing physical, spiritual and emotional challenges.

"The outpouring of gratitude we have received from recipients, indicate

of Love

HEALING BLANKETS

that they find both spiritual and emotional comfort from the blankets during this time in their lives, and often continue to derive solace from them even after they've recovered," says Cindy Chassan.

The volunteers generally never know who receives the blankets, however they've received numerous thank you notes and photos, which have been compiled by Judy Blackman in a book that captures the journey of this program.

In 2016, Amy LaGala stepped in to guide a group of about 8–12 knitters. She has not only enjoyed the camaraderie of this experience, but orchestrates the program, and is inspired by being able to help produce their tangible efforts of love, as well as sewing in "Made with Love" labels on every blanket. "It's meant as comfort and community to let people know that their temple is thinking of them – and that we care," says Amy.

Sisterhood's Knit and Crochet gatherings continue under the leadership of Lori Kupferman, Sisterhood Vice President of Tikkun Olam and Marilyn Ludolph. These gatherings bring people together at Temple to learn, share, and create squares for blankets that bring comfort to those in need. "Being part of this program means a great deal to me" Marilyn says, "to know that in a small way, I am making a difference." Countless members have dedicated their time, effort and love through the years to this endeavor. Lisa Runsdorf kindly shared her crocheting skills with participants, helping to inspire even more creativity within the group.

Each blanket takes between 40–60 hours to make. The yarn is obtained either through funding support from temple auxiliary groups or the generosity of the volunteers. When delivered by our clergy members, the blankets are each accompanied by a card with prayers for healing.

"My cup gets filled when I do things for others and help those without any accolades from behind the scenes. I feel recharged when helping others and being around others doing this meaningful work is even more fulfilling," says Lori Kupferman.

Each blanket is an embrace of warmth, compassion, and hope from one soul to another.

If you wish to get involved in making healing blankets or want to learn to knit and crochet reach out to sisterhood@tbeboca.org for more information.

As we approach the High Holy Days, we are reminded that healing is something we all seek. On Yom Kippur afternoon Thursday, October 2, 2025 we will offer a service of Healing and Renewal. Together, may we find the stillness to reflect, the strength to heal, and the resilience to begin again.

*Adonai, Our God,
Healer and Guide,
You have blessed me with life,
Days of hope and yearning.
Bless me with Your healing power.
Lead me back to
A life of wholeness and peace.
Amen.
- Alden Solovy*

Knowing that temple members hand-crocheted the blanket, pouring their love and prayers for Refuah Shlema, provided me with a sense of saying thank you every time I looked at it.

Rabbi Ashira Boxman

Friday, October 17 • 7:30pm
Schaefer Family Campus

Join us as we celebrate the consecration of Rabbi Ashira Boxman as Temple Beth El's assistant rabbi with special guests Rabbi Jeffrey Sirkman and Rabbi Bradd Boxman.

Rabbi Jeffrey Sirkman has served Larchmont Temple in New York for 37 years, and as senior rabbi since 1994. In partnership with the spiritual leadership with whom he has served, Rabbi Sirkman has helped to create a covenant of congregational life, fostering personal Jewish commitment on the part of every member/household through an ever-developing relationship with Torah (Jewish Study), Avodah (Spiritual Search), and Gemilut Hasadim (Deeds of Sacred Kindness). For the past 25 years, he has served as the Rabbi Stephen Wise Visiting Scholar at the Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion, teaching 5th-year rabbinic and cantorial students, the year-long course for senior students in professional development.

Rabbi Bradd Boxman is the spiritual leader of Congregation Kol Tikvah in Parkland, where he has served as Rabbi since 2009. Rabbi Boxman is committed to five particular areas of his rabbinate: 1) to be in touch with the needs and desires of his congregation; 2) to function as a teacher and exemplar of Torah; 3) to devote a significant amount of time to issues of social justice; 4) to communicate effectively with his congregation by speaking honestly and passionately about issues of Jewish and social concern; and 5) above all else, to serve as a mensch: a role model of ethical behavior, moral integrity and compassionate loving kindness.

Through quiet contemplation and creative expression, we'll hold space for what has been broken, and begin to imagine what healing might look like in our own lives and in the world around us.

New! Mini Circles

We're thrilled to start offering Mini Circles, an opportunity for our younger students to follow their interests, try something different, and have fun with friends in a relaxed and creative setting for 3 weeks at a time.

Mini Circles are short-term, interest-based groups that meet for 3 weeks at a time and focuses on a different theme or activity. Whether it's baking challah, creating tinker projects on our new 3D printer, curling up with a good book, or making something creative through art or photography, Mini Circles are all about joy, curiosity, and connection.

We hope every student finds a Mini Circle that speaks to them and maybe even discovers something they didn't know they loved!

Inspired by the legacy of Myra Singer

The Giving Tree began in the late 1980s with a simple, heartfelt mission. Founded by Myra Singer of blessed memory, the late wife of our Rabbi Emeritus Merle E. Singer, in her garage with just a few friends. Her goal was to bring joy to children and families during the holidays, making sure everyone had a gift and a reason to smile.

Today, we're proud to carry on Myra's legacy, and to name the program in her honor. With the help of dedicated volunteers and local community partnerships, we identify and support foster children, struggling families, homeless teens, and those facing difficult situations like medical crises, fires, or the loss of a loved one.

The need continues to grow each year and we are grateful for the kindness and generosity of Temple Beth El members and the wonderful community of support from all around Palm Beach County. Everyone that helps us extend a helping hand to a local family in need helps continue to spread hope and brighten lives, one act of kindness at a time.

10:00 – 11:30am at the Schaefer Family Campus and on Zoom

Feeding the Hungry

1 in 6 children go to bed hungry in South Florida. Our congregation is humbled to respond to the call.

High Holy Day Food Drive is generously underwritten by Michelle Merson in memory of her parents, Bob and Arlene Merson z'l

Please join us once again to donate food during the High Holy Days to the Jacobson Family Food Pantry. Nutritious, non-perishable groceries are requested, including cereal, pastas, rice, vegetables, tuna, peanut butter and jelly. NO GLASS CONTAINERS. Drop-off dates and times are listed on the website, or donate directly to the Jacobson Family Food Pantry Amazon wish list by scanning the QR code.

Thank you to Jackson Paldino, who used his Bar Mitzvah this past March as an opportunity to help make a hunger-free future possible for those struggling with food insecurity. Instead of giving gifts to Jackson, guests were asked to donate to Feeding South Florida in Jackson's honor. At a donor appreciation luncheon with the FSF Board of Directors, Jackson was recognized for his generosity and the amazing impact the donations have on the community. Mazel Tov to the entire Paldino family for raising such a mensch!

Take Action and Join Social Justice Circles

Have an idea for a new Circle?

All it takes is three members to start one — and the possibilities are endless!

A chavurah is a group of friends in a similar life stage who get together for social, cultural, and Jewish experiences.

Your group can:

- Sit together at Shabbat services and most Temple dinners
 - Go out for happy hour

GOT EVEN MORE IN YOUR HEART?

Circle of Life

Join our Circle of Life to be connected with a Temple member who could really use some TLC. These are members who may be homebound, isolated and lonely; and even the smallest gesture can put a smile on their face.

If you're an adult who loves spreading kindness or a teen looking to earn community service hours in a meaningful way, this is the perfect opportunity to do so. We will find you a match, and you can be their voice of comfort.

What You Can Do:

- Make a friendly phone call or even a video call to check in and see how they're doing
- Visit in person, if you and your match are both comfortable with that
- A little bit of care goes a long way.
Become a Circle of Life Caring Companion today!

Chaverim Team

CAN YOU HELP WITH A MITZVAH?

We're looking for volunteers to join our Chaverim Team—an amazing group of friendly people who make brief, heartfelt phone calls to fellow Beth El congregants before the Jewish holidays. What's Involved? Make a quick call to say hello, check in, and wish them a happy holiday. A small feat that makes a big difference. We even provide a helpful, optional calling script. It's that simple! Rosh HaShanah is right around the corner...Join the Chaverim Team to help ensure every member of our Beth El family receives a warm Shana Tova / Happy New Year wish!

NEED A LITTLE EXTRA TLC?

Are you feeling isolated or going through a tough time?

Would it lift your spirits to hear from a fellow Temple member now and then?

Let us pair you with a caring companion who can check in with a friendly call, a thoughtful message, or just a little conversation when you need it most. One day—hopefully soon—you might even meet face-to-face!

READY TO MAKE AN IMPACT? Whether you'd like to join the Chaverim Team or the Circle of Life, or you're interested in being matched with a Circle of Life friend, we'd love to hear from you! Please contact Susie Federman, Engagement & Programming Associate, at SFederman@tbeboca.org or 561-314-2783.

The Expert In Orthopedic Spine Surgery

Robert P. Norton, M.D., F.A.A.O.S.
Florida Spine Associates

Dr. Norton is a world-leading expert in minimally invasive spine surgery and in office treatment of vertebral compression fractures with the kyphoplasty procedure. Dr Norton spends time when not seeing patients, teaching other surgeons cutting-edge minimally invasive surgical techniques. He recently even wrote a book chapter for a major spine textbook on how to do the kyphoplasty procedure in the office.

Throughout his career, Dr. Norton has had a strong interest in academic medicine and has been actively involved in teaching and research. He has authored multiple publications on a variety of topics related to spine surgery in numerous peer-reviewed journals and textbooks. He has received several research grants and has presented his research at both national and international conferences.

Compression fractures of the spine occur most often in people with osteoporosis, after a fall, after a forceful cough or sneeze, or simply from bending over to tie shoes. Fortunately, he can treat patients with an easy solution called a Kyphoplasty, performed in my office in about 10-minutes. After numbing the area, he will simply place a small needle into the broken bone under x-ray guidance. He can then inject a small amount of bone "glue" to stabilize the broken bone. This is a permanent fix and serves to get rid of the pain from the broken bone and prevent further collapse of the bone so you don't become deformed and hunched over. The pain is gone immediately and you can walk out of the office with just a Band-Aid! Skilled in the most advanced surgical techniques and emerging technologies, Dr. Robert Norton offers expertise in all aspects of spine care. His expertise and excellent surgical outcomes have earned him the nickname, "Miracle Worker."
